

CRICKET NSW

Fact Sheet: CNSW Code of Conduct Procedures

What/who does the Code of Conduct apply to?

Applies to incidents that occur on the field on the day of a Match. It includes conduct which takes place at the ground on the day of the Match, such as in the changerooms or the parking lot. Examples include umpire dissent, personal abuse, abuse of cricket equipment, etc.

Captures Associations, Clubs and/or Cricket Participant (e.g. players, individuals who are registered with or entitled to participate in a Cricket Event, coaches, committee members, parents, volunteers, etc)

Who can report?

- Umpires
- Club/Association officials
- A person who participated in an umpiring capacity (e.g. a player umpire, parent, family member)
- Cricket NSW CEO

How to Submit

- Scan this QR code to make a report

- Submit within 48 hours of Match completion
- Provide a factual statement detailing recollection of events

Process Overview

1. Report is received by Cricket NSW Integrity Unit
2. Report is allocated to a Code of Conduct Commissioner who will conduct an initial review
 - a. Reported Person is asked for their version of events
 - b. Additional questions may be asked of Reporting Person and/or witnesses
3. Commissioner will determine if there is a case to answer
 - a. No case → dismissed
 - b. Case → Notice of Charge
4. Notice of Charge is issued to Reported Person – 3 options
 - a. Accept offence and sanction → finalised
 - b. Accept offence and deny sanction → hearing
 - c. Deny offence and sanction → hearing
5. Hearing – Reported Person, Reporting Person and witnesses are invited to attend
6. Notice of Outcome is sent to Reported Person and Reporting Person
7. Matter recorded on the public register

You may be able to appeal the decision if the process was procedurally unfair, the sanction is disproportionate or the decision is unreasonable.

Support available

Converge International contact details:

- convergeinternational.com.au
- Phone: 1300 687 327
- Organisation Code: CRICNSW

Key Tips and Resources

- Maintain current contact details in Play HQ and check your emails
- Cooperate with the process
- For more information visit <https://www.cricketnsw.com.au/code-of-conduct> or contact integrity@cricketnsw.com.au